2. Notes of the Annual Parish Meeting held on Tuesday 24th April 2018 to be approved as minutes.

The notes were approved as minutes - Proposed by Cllr Wallis seconded by Cllr Chennells - All Agreed, signed by the Chair

3. Chairman's Report

The Chair made comment, saying that 2018 saw a change of Chairman and he Thanked Cllr Chennells for doing the role for the last seven years to a very high standard.

He was delighted with the progress that has been made at the playing field and the play equipment is far superior to the last few years and we thank members of that committee for the long hours and the commitment shown - however it is a shame that the committee no longer exists.

We are delighted to get WiFi installed in the village hall.

The parish council have introduced & reviewed a number of policies over the year to ensure we are compliant. The Neighbourhood plan remains on course with special thanks to Cllr Thomas & Cllr Campbell for the work they have put into the plan.

The Chair thanked the Councillors & the Clerk for their work over the last year, but with regret we lose 2 of the Councillors for the forth coming year and thanks were passed on for their service to the Parish Council.

We continue to work hard to ensure 2019 is as successful as 2018

A Full copy of the report is attached to the minutes.
